

June 5, 2007

Dear Shareholder,

Our final approval with NASD has arrived. DM Products is now fully authorized for active trading. All of us should see this activity in the next week.

As you know, we applied for and received permission to trade under the symbol DMPD. Management suggests the best tracking of our trading be accessed through PinkSheets.com, although, other sites can be used as well.

The immediate goal of the company is to establish the initial bid/ask price for the stock. Although the market will ultimately establish the trading price of our stock, we are confident that our future activities and business plan will reflect positively on our market value.

The company is also registered with the Depository Trust Company (DTC). This registration allows our stock to be held in "street name" through a broker/dealer of our choosing. We understand each of us probably has their own brokerage account. This registration will make it easier for everyone to trade, when the time arrives. Again, the company would urge each shareholder to have patience in trading and allow the company the opportunity to increase the stock value.

Kurt Cockrum, one of our largest investors, has been named Chairman of the Board of Directors and President. Mike DeBenon will remain as Secretary and Treasurer. Mr. Cockrum's bio is viewable on our new website www.dmproducts.biz.

Our new website is still a work in progress so please be patient. Our intent, for the shareholders convenience, is to use our website as a communication link to and from the shareholders. You will be able to access the site and get all of the latest news and updates. All confidential communication will be done directly to the shareholders through mailings.

It has been a long and frustrating experience over the past 18 months, but we have finally achieved and crossed a major milestone in the growth of DM Products. The Board would like to thank all of you for your support and patience. We are very excited about our future here at DM Products, and we will continue to work hard for you, the shareholders. We ask for your continued support as we now go forward and build into the future. Everything we do is only done in the best interest of our shareholders.

Michael S. DeBenon
Secretary/Treasurer