Item 8.01 - Other Events

On December 27, 2011, the Board of Directors of DM Products, Inc. ("DMP") entered into a resolution for the dissolution of its subsidiary, Aliano, Inc. ("Aliano"). A Certificate of Dissolution was filed with the Nevada Secretary of State on December 28, 2011. The reason for the dissolution was the inability of the company to obtain the necessary financing for commencement of any operations under Aliano. As such, the Board determined that the cost of maintaining the subsidiary entity was not justified.

Aliano was established in July 2010 as a Nevada corporation, and wholly owned subsidiary of DMP, for the purpose of formulating, producing and marketing a line of luxury perfume and related products. Other than organization activities, DMP has not engaged in any operations with this new line of business.

Due to the company's inability to locate capital or other financing necessary to implement its business intent, the Board of Directors felt it necessary to dissolve Aliano and discontinue its pursuit of a fragrance division.

The anticipated effects of the dissolution of Aliano on DMP's business performance are minor.
